Key moments in distributed sorting with 4 nodes

- started reading input file
- finished reading input file, started partitioning the records
- finished partitioning the records, started putting them into Plasma
- finished putting the records into Plasma
- send-to-dest started
- received first data chunk
- received last data chunk, started processing received data (first retrieving and assembling the records)
- finished retrieving and assembling the records, started sorting the records
- finished sorting the records, started writing to csv
- finished writing to csv